Strategic Plan

City of London

Comprehensive Report

london.ca

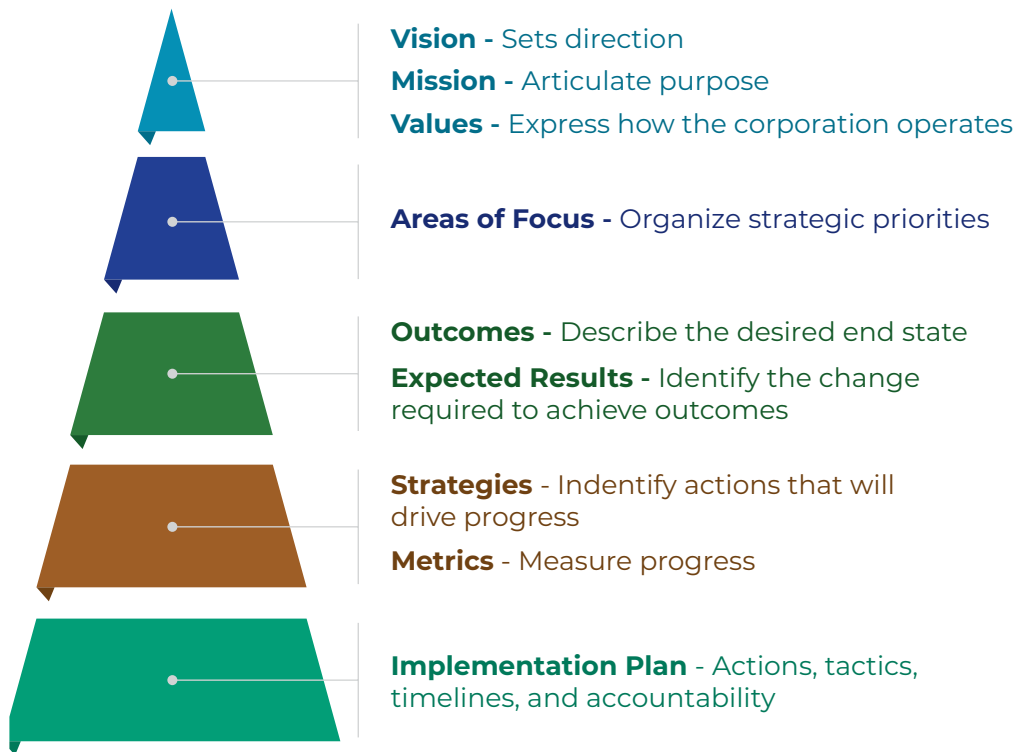

London
CANADA

Structurally, the Strategic Plan starts with high-level guiding statements and principles – the City’s Vision, Mission, and Values. The Strategic Plan then groups priorities into Strategic Areas of Focus, which include descriptions of where we want to go as a City, and the change required to get there – the Outcomes and Expected Results. Each Expected Result has Strategies to go with it. Strategies describe an action or actions that will be taken to deliver results.

The Implementation Plan takes the strategies into greater detail, describing the specific actions that will be taken, by which department/agency, and on what timeline. The Implementation Plan is developed following Council's approval of the Strategic Plan.

Glossary terms

Affordable Housing (programs): Programs and investments from all orders of government that make the cost of housing more affordable in comparison to average market rent within the private rental market. These units are not social housing and are not managed by the Service Manager.

Circular Economy: The circular economy is regenerative where everything is valued, resources are more efficiently used, nothing is wasted, and everything is a resource that can be fed back into the beginning of production cycles in a closed-loop system.

Equity-Denied Groups: Equity-denied groups are communities of people who are excluded from fully participating in society because of systemic barriers.

Equity Tool: The City of London's equity tool is one strategic way to dismantle racism and oppression. It is a series of questions that prompt users to consider the specific impacts of a proposal (policy, procedure, program, service, event, budget, funding, or even a decision) on equity-denied groups, to consider any relevant data or information available about those impacted, to intentionally engage with those who will be most impacted, and to articulate what will be done now to improve equitable outcomes, and what will be done in the future.

Gender-Based Violence: umbrella term for a range of violence perpetrated against an individual because of their gender, gender identity, or gender expression. Forms of violence include, but are not limited to, sexual harassment, sexual assault, domestic violence.

Gender-Diverse People: Gender diversity is an umbrella term to describe an individual with a gender identity outside of the male/female gender binary. An individual's gender identity and/or gender expression may not conform to societal norms or stereotypes around gender.

Health Equity: health equity is created when individuals have the fair opportunity to reach their fullest potential. Achieving health equity requires reducing unnecessary and avoidable differences that are unfair and unjust. Many causes of health inequities relate to social and environmental factors including: income, social status, race, gender, education and physical environment. (Source: Public Health Ontario)

Infrastructure Gap: The Infrastructure Gap is a dollar amount based on the difference between a) the amount of money that needs to be spent on City-owned assets required to provide services to Londoners and b) the amount of funding presently identified in future budgets or reserve funds over a 10 year period. Ideally, the Infrastructure Gap declines over time as greater investment is made to replace older infrastructure, to improve the condition of infrastructure and to minimize the risks associated with failing assets.

Mobility (or Transportation) Poverty: refers to situations where socio-economic marginalization combines with transportation barriers to mutually reinforce problems in peoples' lives, preventing them from thriving. Transportation-related social exclusion is the outcome of transport poverty, as it results from the activities that people miss out on due to one's transportation situation, things like missing job interviews and doctors' visits, as well as feelings of isolation. Sexual Violence: a form of gender-based violence and is a broad term that describes any violence, physical or psychological, carried out through sexual means or by targeting sexuality.

Social Housing: Often referred to as Community Housing. Housing that is subsidized by a level of government. Social housing provides rent-geared-to-income assistance which is accessed through the centralized waitlist administered by the Service Manager.

Supportive Housing: Supportive housing provides a home with access to on-site supports to ensure people can achieve and maintain housing stability.
