Question	Answer
Q6 — Biggest Challenges Facing the Sector & Actions Candidates Would Support	I think the biggest challenge facing nonprofits and charities in London is finding long term sources of stable funding. I've have and will continue to support efforts to ensure that the city has funding sources available for nonprofits and charities.
Q7 — Support a Formal, Ongoing Dialogue Mechanism With the Sector (Yes/No + Why)	Yes
Q8 — Support Multi-Year Funding & Longer-Term Partnerships (Yes/No + Why)	Yes — These organizations provide important public services in many communities throughout our city and should receive funding.
Q9 — Ensuring Nonprofits Are Included in Decision-Making	I think establishing a nonprofit advisory committee that could make recommendations to council would be helpful. This would also give council the option to forward items for their review and input.
Q10 — The City's Role in Supporting Nonprofit Infrastructure	I'm in favour of supporting multi-service public shared spaces. For instance, organizations can utilize space at libraries or community centres. If the city is looking to partner or do a purchase of service agreement they absolutely have a role to play in capacity building to support those efforts. Cross-sectoral collaboration should also be encouraged and supported by the city.
Q11 — The Nonprofit Sector's Role & What Success Looks Like	To achieve a healthy and prosperous London we need the nonprofit sector. For me, success would be a more integrated and collaborative environment. We all have a role to play and ensuring that our shared socio-economic goals can be achieved together, which will result in better outcomes for all Londoners.
Q12 — Other Priorities Candidates Wanted the Sector to Know	I have been very impressed in London (and particularly in Ward 1) with the nonprofits that work in the food security field. They are doing important work and it has been a pleasure working with them. I hope to continue to do so if re-elected. Housing is an important priority of mine but food is also top of mind for many of my residents. Food and shelter are basic needs that continue to need our attention.
Q14 — Commit to Engaging With & Supporting the Nonprofit Sector (Yes/No + Why)	Yes
