Question	Answer
Q6 — Biggest Challenges Facing the Sector & Actions Candidates Would Support	Unstable funding models, and unclear expectations placed on non-profits. I would support moving towards an activity and resultsbased funding models for non-profits and charities.
Q7 — Support a Formal, Ongoing Dialogue Mechanism With the Sector (Yes/No + Why)	Yes
Q8 — Support Multi-Year Funding & Longer-Term Partnerships (Yes/No + Why)	Yes — Yes, and it is important we guarantee them stable, activity based funding with clear expectations and deadlines to maintain a healthy, productive, partnership.
Q9 — Ensuring Nonprofits Are Included in Decision-Making	I would like to see them participate in achievable projects, and outcomes that improve our city, instead of just them being recipients of grants, such as getting them to engage in affordable housing projects to keep students here, and if some have skills that the city needs, use the non-profits as a way to bridge their gap towards proper employment.
Q10 — The City's Role in Supporting Nonprofit Infrastructure	The city's role is to create partnerships that build capacity and economies of scale. We need comprehensive partnerships, instead of going towards a scattershot approach, so that we're working in tandem , instead of just giving away grants for the sake of it. It is basically the city working collectively with the non-profits, instead of multiple actors going from 1 point to another, as we are stronger together. It is shifting the paradigm from a "nice to have", to a genuine, productive partnership that tackles the problems the city faces.
Q11 — The Nonprofit Sector's Role & What Success Looks Like	I just want to see more housing get built, one where there is a wide variety of housing options available. I would like to see collaborative initiatives with the city to attract new employers to London to tackle our rising unemployment.
Q12 — Other Priorities Candidates Wanted the Sector to Know	—
Q14 — Commit to Engaging With & Supporting the Nonprofit Sector (Yes/No + Why)	Yes
